Subject: talk tomorrow

Let's talk about Durango tomorrow. I'm behind on mortgage letters, inspection resolution items, and bank stuff and need to spend some time tomorrow on that stuff.

In light of this evening's adventure, my general thought is that I can support Qs and As and messaging, media and other needs from here just as effectively. Seems like this is going to wind down fast following the data release, the Durango drinking water intakes reopening, and Hickenlooper drinking water from the river on TV. I think it will quickly transition to focus on how did this happen, SF and Upper Animas mines, financial claims, agency accountability, etc., very quickly over the next couple days. I can help assist w/ those things from Denver.
